LETTER OF ENGAGEMENT

Contract for Services between:

1. General Wiranto , Army of the Republic of Indonesia, ( Retired )
2. Trans Pacific Partners, L.L.C., a U.S. limited liability corporation, located at 1204 Old Stable Road, McLean, Virginia, 22102

WHEREAS General Wiranto , in consideration of its experience, its expertise, and its valued contacts within the U.S. Government and the U.S. news media, and its expressed desire to represent the interests of General Wiranto , wishes to appoint Trans Pacific Partners (TPP) as his Representative in Washington; and

WHEREAS TPP wishes to accept such appointment for a consideration to be set forth hereafter.

NOW, THEREFORE the parties agree as follows:

Article 1 : APPOINTMENT, DUTIES , SCOPE OF WORK

1. General Wiranto appoints TPP as his exclusive Representative in Washington to represent his interests in the United States of America. The appointment is made for a period of one year from July 1, 2001 to June 30, 2002, the term to be renewable by mutual agreement for other periods of one year.
2. In this capacity TPP will act as the General's principal point of contact with:
  - a. Appropriate departments and agencies within the U.S. Government
  - b. The Congress of the United States
  - c. The U.S. news media
  - d. Other parties as identified by General Wiranto

Article 2 : SPECIAL DUTIES

1. In its role as General Wiranto's representative to the U.S. Government, TPP will provide General Wiranto with an assessment of his current image and reputation within the United States and in particular within the U.S. Government and the U.S. media. This assessment will specifically identify those persons and organizations that have been critical of the General and have unfairly attacked his reputation. The assessment will also identify those organizations and individuals within the U.S. Government and media which are sympathetic to the problems and challenges that have faced the General during his tenure as Minister of Defense and Security, as well as Chief of the Armed Forces of the Republic of Indonesia.
2. Based on this assessment and in consultation with General Wiranto, TPP will develop a recommended strategy to correct the record of untrue and misinformed accusations that have been directed at the General.
3. With the General's agreement, TPP will execute the agreed strategy, correct the record and restore the General's reputation in the United States as an Indonesian patriot whose first concern is for the stability, integrity and economic prosperity of his country.
4. When the General's record and reputation have been restored, TPP will advise and request that the General's visit the United States so that he may be presented to the necessary and appropriate U.S. Government officials and U.S. agency officials.

Article 3: COMPENSATION

For its services, TPP will receive compensation of $250,000 U.S. dollars and $50,000 for operating expenses net of any Indonesian taxes. From this amount, TPP will be expected to cover all of its expenses in the U.S. and will only be reimbursed by General Wiranto for expenses related to travel to Indonesia. ( including business class air fares and ground expenses ). Any travel to Indonesia must be specifically approved by General Wiranto in advance and will relate exclusively to the interests of the General.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto caused this agreement to be executed.
